

Tense Moments While Awaiting Orders to Charge

GERMAN INFANTRY DRAWN UP AT THE EDGE OF A FOREST WITH THEIR EYES AND THOUGHTS INTENT UPON THE OBJECTIVE BEFORE THEM AND READY AT THE WORD OF COMMAND TO RUSH FORWARD TO THE ASSAULT.

THE AISNE WILL BE A MEMORABLE RIVER IN FRENCH ANNALS, FOR IT WAS TO THERE THAT THE GERMANS WERE DRIVEN WHEN PARIS WAS ALMOST WITHIN THEIR GRASP. GERMAN TROOPS ARE HOLDING A FIRST-LINE TRENCH ON THE RIVER BANK.